Every family should have a complete set of Mary Fabyan Windeatt's books on the Saints. Not only the children enjoy them but the grown-ups also. In reading these books goodness is learned in an easy way as well as the way of life in the land where the Saint lived. Here are some of the Windeatt books:—

THE CHILDREN OF FATIMA—The story of Our Lady's appearance at Fatima in Portugal. 144 pages. Illustrated by Gedge Harmon.

LITTLE QUEEN—If St. Therese, the Little Flower of Jesus, had written her own life story for youth she would have written a much better one than is written. Illustrated by Gedge Harmon. $2.00.

THE MAN ON FIRE—is Saint Paul the Apostle and the author of the Epistles. Once you have read this book you will listen with interest to the Epistles written by St. Paul and read at Mass on Sundays. 198 pages. Illustrated by Paul A. Grout. $2.50.

THE MEDAL—Many wear a Miraculous Medal but do not know the thrilling story connected with it. Our Blessed Mother herself designed it. A Sister of Charity in Paris is the one Our Lady entrusted it to. 106 pages. Illustrated by Gedge Harmon. $2.00.

OUR LADY'S SLAVE—More and more is written about Our Blessed Mother and those men and women whose lives were deeply influenced by their devotion to her. This book tells of TRUE DEVOTION to Our Blessed Mother and the man who made it popular, St. Louis de Montfort. 201 pages. Illustrated by Paul A. Grout. $2.50.
