BANNER BOOKS

A NEW SERIES FOR READERS FROM NINE TO THE TEENS

Banner books present the stories of men and women who contributed to the growth of our country and to the spread of the Catholic Faith in the new world.

Based on historical facts, the stories stress the inspirational and adventurous elements in the lives of the persons treated. The books give rich background material on the customs and way of life in each historical period.

Authors experienced in the field of juvenile writing, expert critical and editorial work, colorful and vivid illustrations, have all contributed to making BANNER BOOKS an outstanding series that will appeal to modern youth, and at the same time inculcate high religious and patriotic ideals.

The BANNER BOOKS which have appeared thus far are:

1. FRIAR AMONG SAVAGES,
Father Luís Cancer, O.P.,
BY Bro. Kurt, C.F.X., and Bro. Antoninus,
C.F.X.
2. CRUSADERS OF THE GREAT RIVER,
