ABOUT THE AUTHOR

MARION BAILEY STEPHENSON, the author of Miracle of the Mohawks, brings a formidable knowledge of Indian life and customs to her study of Katherine Tekakwitha's life. Born in Masonville, New York, Mrs. Stephenson is a graduate of the Oswego State Normal School, Oswego, New York, and George Peabody College, Nashville, Tennessee. She has also studied at Florida University, Gainesville, Florida.

Mrs. Stephenson's interest in Indian life stems from her experience as a teacher on the Onondaga Reservation near Syracuse, New York.

Mrs. Stephenson is the author of articles and stories on Indian legends and folkways, and a book Nyah's Quest.
