PRAYER for the Canonization of
BLESSED KATERI TEKAKWITHA

O God, who, among the many marvels of Your Grace in the New World, did cause to blossom on the banks of the Mohawk and of the St. Lawrence, the pure and tender Lily, Kateri Tekakwitha, grant we beseech You, the favor we beg through her intercession; that this Young Lover of Jesus and of His Cross may soon be counted among her Saints by Holy Mother Church, and that our hearts may be enkindled with a stronger desire to imitate her innocence and faith. Through the same Christ Our Lord. Amen.

SERVICE OF THE WORD

FIRST READING: HEBREWS 11:1-2, 8-12

You shall cross the barren desert,
but you shall not die of thirst.
You shall wander far in safety
though you do not know the way.
You shall speak your words to foreign men
and they will understand.
You shall see the face of God and live

Bob Dufford, S.J.

If you pass through raging waters in the sea,
you shall not drown.
If you walk amid the burning flames,
you shall not be harmed.
If you stand before the pow'r of hell
and death is at your side,
know that I am with you through it all.

Blessed are your poor,
for the Kingdom shall be theirs.
Blest are you that weep and mourn,
for one day you shall laugh.
And if wicked men insult and hate you
All because of Me,
blessed, blessed are you.

GOSPEL: LUKE 12:32-48

Dear Father, Brother Jesus,
send the power of your healing upon us your people.
Heal our hearts; renew our spirits.
Enkindle within your people the fire of your love.
Send forth your spirit and we will be recreated,
and you shall renew the face of the earth. (to Verse 4)

1. Awake from your slumber! Arise from your sleep!
A new day is dawning for all those who weep.
The people in darkness have seen a great light.
The Lord of our longing has conquered the night.

REFRAIN: (Congregation)

Dan Schutte, S.J.

Let us build the cit-y of God. May our

Light and our Love, has turned the night in - to day!

2. We are sons of the morning; we are daughters of day.
The One Who has loved us has brightened our way.
The Lord of all kindness has called us to be a light for His people to set their hearts free.
3. God is light; in Him there is no darkness.
Let us walk in His light, His children, one and all.
O comfort My people; make gentle your words.
Proclaim to My city the day of her birth.
4. O city of gladness, now lift up your voice!
Proclaim the good tidings that all may rejoice!

COAT OF ARMS

An explanation of Bishop Donald E. Pelotte's Coat of Arms:

The Coat of Arms is special to each Bishop, and has a long tradition in the Church. The Arms of Bishop Pelotte consist of a white shield, a symbol of peace, with a cross consisting of four black arrows interlaced, with the points and the feathers reversed.

The interlaced arrows summarize the motto: STRENGTHEN ONE ANOTHER (taken from St. Paul's letter to the Romans, Ch. 14:19.) The arrows honor Bishop Pelotte's Indian ancestry and heritage. The cross of arrows also recalls the words of the Prophet Isaiah, Ch. 2:4, which calls the people to peace.

The chalice with the host has been adapted from the new insignia of the Congregation of the Blessed Sacrament. It is an ancient custom to place the symbols of religious orders on the Arms of members who are raised to the episcopate. Behind the Arms is placed a gold processional cross. A pontifical hat, with its six tassels on each side, dates back to an old Church custom of showing signs of rank.

Bishop Pelotte worked with an artist to design the shield.
