All the old missions had a cross at the entrance and at the exit of each one.

Kahnawake Indians have long been "high steel" workers
throughout the continent.

They erected steel crosses
at each end of the village.

Drove here Mon. - 367 miles from Yonkers.

Quite a change -
this Indian reservation -
Here visited the school.
The boys play lacrosse
rather than baseball.
Are staying in a house
built in early 1700's -
It is located on the St. Lawrence Montreal is opposite.
